

ABOUT US

Co Chairs of the Advisory Board: Christian Leuprecht, Rupak Chattopadhyay

Publisher: Forum of Federations (Rupak Chattopadhyay, Rod Macdonell)

The editorial team is a group of international scholars, engaged in the research on Federalism. It currently consists of:

Managing Editor: Annegret Eppler

Associate Editors: Joshua Cerovski, Dominic Heinz, Eva-Maria Maggi, Victoria Tait

Are you interested in Federal Governance and want to know more about our goals, call for paper, review policy or ways to get involved with the journal? Please do not hesitate to email us and/or visit our website:
www.federalgovernance.ca

FG | Federal
Governance
a graduate journal

Theory and Politics of Federalism and Multi-Level
Governance

FG | Federal
Governance
a graduate journal

ISSN: 1923-6158
Forum of Federations
325 Dalhousie Street, Suite 700
Ottawa, Ontario K1N 7G2
Canada
editor@federalgovernance.ca
www.federalgovernance.ca

WWW.FEDERALGOVERNANCE.CA

OUR PURPOSE

Federal Governance is an online graduate journal on theory and politics of federalism and multi-level governance. Its mandate is to engage the global federalism community and reach out to outstanding graduate students interested in federalism and multi-level governance. By providing a platform for graduate students to have early success in their careers,

Federal Governance is sponsored by the Forum of Federations and is affiliated with its founding partner, Institute of Intergovernmental Relations at Queen's University, Canada.

CALL FOR PAPER

Federal Governance has a rolling publication policy and is therefore always looking for interesting paper to publish. You can choose between three types of paper:

- Research Articles (3000-3500 words)
- Book Reviews (500 words)
- Review Essay (750-1000 words)

For further details and our standing call for paper, please visit our website and/or contact the Editorial team.

HOW TO SUBMIT A PAPER

Submitting a paper to Federal Governance contains the following steps:

1. Contact the editorial team to
2. Visit www.federalgovernance.ca and follow the submission guidelines and requirements carefully as indicated.
3. Upload your paper at the Federal Governance website in .doc-Format. Please make sure that the size of your paper does not exceed 300kb.

For any further questions please visit our website.

REVIEW PROCESS

Submissions to Federal Governance subject to a double-blind peer review. Essays will be judged on the basis of scholarship, quality of research and relevance to the fields of federalism and multi-level governance.

Please visit our website for more detailed information about the Review Policy and process.

GET INVOLVED

▪ Submit An Article

The best way to get involved with Federal Governance is to contribute by submitting an article.

▪ Review A Book

Federal Governance receives new releases of relevant books from major publishing houses, so that students have the opportunity to review a book instead of buying a book.

▪ Become Our Peer

Federal Governance offers graduate students an opportunity to review scientific articles, expand their network reach with emerging scholars from around the world, and contribute to the field of federalism.

ADVISORY BOARD

Federal Governance benefits from the support of an advisory board consisting of leading experts in the field of federalism and multi-level-governance. Members are:

Balveer Arora, Gerald Baier, Authur Benz, Michael Burgess, Assefa Fiseha, Anna Gamper, Kristin Good, Neophytos Loizides, Francesco Palermo, Johanne Poirier, Gilberto Rodrigues, Cheryl Saunders, Rotimi Suberu, Alan Tarr.